

Complete at least 5 Navy Elementary Reading challenges by the end of the first quarter

It's time to Drop Everything and READ (D.E.A.R.)!! Our goal is to develop avid, lifelong readers. This Readathon Challenge allows parents to partner with students to develop or further deepen a love for reading. Students meet simple reading goals and parents support their students by helping them track their achievements by October 23, 2020.

Read outside for at least 20 minutes. Don't forget the bug spray and sunscreen!	Play library story time- read aloud a book to your stuffed animals or family (don't forget to use silly voices for different characters).	Read a book from a genre that you don't normally read (ex. fiction, nonfiction, mystery, sports fiction).	Write a book recommendation for a family member or friend and send it to them.
Pick up a book from Navy's curbside pick-up program.	Read for 20 minutes a day for 5 straight days.	Read for 20 minutes a day for 5 straight days.	Read a "Virginia Readers Choice" book.
Finish at least one book at your reading level in September.	Read for 20 minutes a day for 5 straight days.	Read for 20 minutes a day for 5 straight days.	Read everyday for the first quarter.
Finish at least one book at your reading level in October.	Read a book recommended by a friend.	Read a book in bed or on the couch.	Read a book about somewhere you would like to visit.

Parents: Please upload photos to SmugMug or tag NavyElementaryPTO on social media with #NavyESStrong #NAVYREADS